Where practicable to employ sheep, they prove an efficient protection, provided they are in sufficient numbers to keep the fallen fruit promptly devouced, and provided also that they are kept in the orchard year after year through the summer months. Where sheep cannot be turned in, the Paris green remedy has proved g very efficient one, and both may be used together if the sheep are not a !mitted until copious rains have washed away all the poison that has fallen on the grass during the operation. In cases where this remedy has not sucecoded, it has been owing to a want of th rong and repeated spraying at the right time. After the poison has done its work in destroying the minute young farre, the summer rains wash off all that remains.

The Legislature.

The principal feature of the senate proceedings the past week, was the speech of Senator McGlunis' against the repeal of Sunday law of 1857. Although his effort was a remarkable one it fell flat upon the senate, as the vote will show. Senator Parcher, of this district, made an excellent argument in favor of the repeal. The bill on being put upon its pas-age passed. Yeas, 23; nays, 5.

The senate passed the bill appropriating $1,000 to the Missouri State Horticultural Society to reimburse them for moneys expended in their exhibit at the World's Fair in New Orleans, and to keep up said exhibit; also, Mr. Wear's bill to appropriate $600 for the preservation of the flags and other relies used by Missouri troops in the late war; also, substitute for senate bill 291, authorizing boards of aldermen in cities of more than 25,000 inhabitants to grant dramshop licenses.

The house passed the following bills: House bill requiring bond in attach ment before Justice of the peace to indemnity officers serving process.

House kill making homicide committed in the attempt at arson, burglary or maybem murder in the first degree.

House bill flxing compensation to sheriff in sale for partition of reat estate. House but requiring insurance conspanies to report to assessors by January of each year.

House bill prohibiting commission merchants from hypothecating bills of ading for horses, cattle, hogs or sheep. House bill providing that every collector shall send statements and notice to dellinquent tax-payers instead of posting collective notice. House bill permitting jury to bring in special verdet where there are several points in the case. House bill prohibiting any person; from stealing or munisting tickets at elections under penalty of not less than

825 House bill repealing the law of estate by courtesy, and endowing the hu-band in the wife's hand, as the wife is now endowed of the husband's lands, House bill striking out that part of the divorce law which forbids the gail y party from marrying after divorce.

House bill providing that any keeper of a wine or beer saloon who sells or gives wine or beer to a minor, or allows a minor to play eards or bibards on The Line selected by the U.S. Co. t. premises, shall pay to parent or guardian the sum of $50, and be liable to fine of not less than $50 for misdemeaner. House bid constraing the law concerning appointment of guardians and engators.

By leave, the following bills were introduced:

By Mr. Weimer: To provide for reording of conveyances that may have been destroyed.

By Mr. Allen: Compelling railroad companies to make easy grades at crossings and macadamizing.
